New subject published in article and tract formats

The title in English, available in article format only, is “Conflict and War or Peace and Security.” Text with 14 graphics and photographs. Available at <https://www.spiritofprophecies.com/conflict-war-peace-security-which>.

I prepared this subject originally in English, then translated it to Spanish. It is on the Spanish site www.edirotiallapaz.org at <https://www.editoriallapaz.org/paz-seguridad-conflicto-guerra.html>

The tract version in Spanish, shorter than the article, was done in Word and is available through the attachment below, should you wish to take a look.

If you open the Home Page of Editorial La Paz (Peace Publishers), at <https://www.editoriallapaz.org/>, and scroll down, you can see some of the studies and articles on which I have also worked during the last three months, or so. Reformatting, adding graphics, improving the text in some cases. Some new material among the subjects. With the exception of a few links always left on the Home Page due to their importance, links on this page are removed after a time, being replaced by newer material. Otherwise, the Home Page would get to long and take to much time to load. The ones removed are placed in their respective categories when first published where updates are also applied.

Through your generosity, 271,403 instruments of evangelism and edification were provided over the Internet in March to Christians and the unconverted. We never cease to be thankful for your vital collaboration in these humble efforts to evangelize and edify.
